Here's what he had to say:

Before the Instant karma Code, I felt like my dismal, dull life was my forever destiny. Especially since everything I tried to change my life failed miserably. I realise how all of that just reinforced my limited beliefs. But now, I finally feel deserving of EVERYTHING. That the universe isn't out to get me, but to "gift" me. It's a game-changer for sure.

Thea from Santa Fe, NM who said:

Hey Melanie!

My life always felt like there was a conveyor belt of bad things dropped into my lap. It didn't seem like there was much hope, to "good" that ever came my way. My finances were always in the toilet, which always limited my options in life. But The Instant Karma Code turned all that around. Now it's like the conveyor belt is dumping nothing but good things in my lap, including making more money last month than I did all last year!

Terry from Dealware:

I grew up in family that always struggled to make ends meet. As a adult, I repeated the same scarcity: never going on vacations, shopping at Goodwill for Christmas, and never being able to afford a newercar. But then I discovered The Instant Karma Code. Soon I had a job that paid TWICE my old job. And I was able to get a new car and take the family on a great vacation. I'm now the hero instead of a zero
